Remember when I asked you a few months ago if you were actually a lawyer, this is what i was referring to.

You can provoke me and then try to make me look bad.

Please cease further contact with me. I only consent to motions, etc.

Since you do not wish to come to any kind of agreement, I will be filing the proposed schedule.

Thank you

Ok, buddy boy.

I need to file something too: the motion for judicial notice that the second circuit just did that DESTROYS your client's "FIRST AmeNDTMENT rights".

As I said again. I don't fucking know what to put in the scheduling order. So cry all you want and waste paper. It is YOU fucking dragging this on.

We reject this settlement offer. Please send a schedule. If you'd like more time due to the hospitalization, we would not object to an extension on your part on that basis.

Mathew,

With all due respect, You keep asking for a schedule and you even offered the copyright office, but you seem to negate the fact that this could have been settled very long ago by Joshua moon swallowing his pride and understanding that I'm not a subhuman aka a "lolcow", but rather a real person whose life has been affected by this website. Just the other day, one of Moon's devotees contacted me an attached photo of Hitler.

Remove me from kiwi farms, not just my copyrights, install a code on his site to ensure I'm automatically erased every time my name and likeness is used, and let's settle this because you bemoan that this has dragged on for too long. I agree. And so with the Court rejecting your motions, I don't see why you aren't wanting to do something extremely easy. I can even draft the contract to agree to this.

The draft attorney planning report listing the items that need to be scheduled was referred to in the original scheduling order from when your case first started, and is available online here: <https://www.utd.uscourts.gov/sites/utd/files/attymtg.pdf>.

You should send me a draft version of the report with your position on all issues contained in the report and all dates you want inserted into the report, and I will counter with Defendants' position on these issues and Defendants' position on dates. If we cannot agree, the Court has a procedure where it will resolve the areas of disagreement. As yet, because I have not seen your draft report, I have no idea if we agree or disagree.

Since most of the motions you filed have been decided, what exactly are we trying to schedule? That's where I'm confused.

Mr. Greer,

Per the below, and as requested in my email to you dated January 17, 2024, I again write to ask for your proposed schedule. Alternatively, if you would like to mediate this dispute with the Copyright Claims Board (<https://www.ccb.gov/access-a-claim/>) instead of continuing through the Court process, I am authorized to engage with that process.
